

Redistricting Timeline (2020s)

Legislative Redistricting Board (LRB)

- LRB assumes responsibility for house and senate plans if bills have not passed or have been vetoed
- LRB must convene within 90 days of sine die

← LRB must complete its work within 60 days of convening. →

Special Sessions

Legislature may consider Congressional and SBOE redistricting plans in special session.

← Governor may call special session to consider house and senate redistricting plans (only after time in which LRB can meet). →

Judicial Review

May occur if court challenges are filed against enacted districts. →